

50 by 50 orthogonal maze

A square maze composed of black lines forming walls and white spaces representing paths. A single path is highlighted in red, starting from the top edge near the center-right and winding through various turns and dead ends before exiting at the bottom edge near the center-left. The maze is dense with many small loops and branches.